

Conkers, conkers shiny and round

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

Autumn's treasure. A hand play.

Origin of this rhyme is unknown. Music by Dany Rosevear.

Verse 1. Put one fist on top of the other when 'conkers' is sung. Make a pocket out of one hand and slide the other hand in. Roll fists round each other for falling conkers. Spread both hands facing away for leaves.

2. As before. Last line make conker action then wiggle fingers down from heap.

Con - kers, con - kers, shin - y and round, Put them in your pock - et when you find them on the ground. Con - kers, con - kers, fall from the trees, A pock - et full of con - kers, and a bunch of yel - low leaves.

Conkers, conkers, shiny and round,
Put them in your pocket when you find them on the ground.
Conkers, conkers fall from the trees,
A pocket full of conkers and a bunch of yellow leaves.

Conkers, conkers, shiny and round,
Put them in your pocket when you find them on the ground.
Conkers, conkers, fall from the trees,
A heap of shiny conkers and a pile of fallen leaves.
