

The baby in the cradle

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A hand play for the very young.

From 'This little puffin' 2nd edition published 1991.

Verse 1. Make a cradle with forearms. 2. Point two fingers down over other hand and swing from side to side like a pendulum. 3. Tap with fingers on floor or table. 4. Clap.

The baby in the cradle
Goes rock-a-rock-a-rock,
Rock-a-rock-a-rock,
The clock on the dresser
Goes tick-a-tick-a-tock;
Tick-a-tick-a-tock.
The rain on the window
Goes tap-a-tap-a-tap,
Tap-a-tap-a-tap.
But here comes the sun
So we clap-a-clap-a-clap!
Clap-a-clap-a-clap!
