

Side by side

A classic from my childhood, whether rich or poor we were all singing it. A popular song by Harry M. Woods written in 1927 - long lived with its the universal theme; if we have people we love around us everything will be fine, we don't need consumer goods. If only; when poverty knocks, love and care go a long way but having to cope with hunger and basic needs however, can be devastating.

Oh, we ain't got a bar - rel of mon - ey, May - be we're rag - ged and fun - ny, But we'll Don't know what's com - in' to - mor - row, May - be it's trou - ble and sor - row, But we'll trav - el a - long, — sing - in' a song, — Side by side. Thru all kinds of weath - er trav - el the road, shar - in' our load, — Side by side.

What if the sky should fall — Just as long as we're to - ge - ther, It real - ly does - n't mat - ter at all. — When they've all had their quar - rels and par - ted, We'll be the same as we star - ted, Just trav - 'ling a - long, — sing - in' a song, — Side by side.

Oh, we ain't got a barrel of money,
Maybe we're ragged and funny,
But we'll travel along singing a song, Side by side.

Don't know what's coming tomorrow,
Maybe it's trouble and sorrow,
But we'll travel the road sharin' our load, Side by side.

Thru all kind of weather,
What if the sky should fall,
As long as we're together,
It really doesn't matter at all.

When they've all had their quarrels and parted,
We'll be the same as we started,
Just travelling along singing a song,
Side by side, Side by side.
