

Bees in the lavender

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

An end of summer hand play. The garden was abuzz last week with bees particularly enjoying the warm sunshine. This song was written for World Honey Bee Day on August 17th introduced to celebrate these wonderful hardworking creatures.

Words and music by Dany Rosevear.

Musical score for the song "Bees in the lavender". The score is written in 2/4 time and consists of three staves. The lyrics are: "Bees in the lavender, bees in the rose, Bees in the honey pots, Would - n't you just know! Bees in the garden visit flow'rs low or high, Then when the sun sinks down to rest, Back to their hives they fly." The chords are: C, Am, Dm, G7, F, Am, C, F, C, G7, C, G7, C.

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

Bees in the lavender, bees in the rose,
Bees in the honey pots, Wouldn't you just know!
Bees in the garden visit flowers low or high.
Then when the sun sinks down to rest,
Back to their hives they fly,
Then when the sun sinks down to rest,
Back to their hives they fly.