

Golden is the garden

<https://rivgrofsong.uk/>

The harvest season in the UK comes towards the end of September or the beginning of October. Nowadays the date is fixed but in the past the harvest festival would change depending on when the harvest had all been brought in.

All about the UK harvest season \(oddbox.co.uk\)

British harvest: when is harvest day, plus history and traditions | Countryfile.com

The word 'harvest' is from the Old English 'hærfest', meaning autumn.

This old rhyme has been adapted and set to music by Dany Rosevear.

Each verse can be used as a stand-alone.

G D7 G

Gol - den is the gar - den, Gol - den is the grain, Gol - den, gol - den,
Gol - den is the gar - den, Gol - den is the glen, Gol - den, gol - den,

Am G D7 G C G

gol - den, It's Har - vest time a - gain! Gol - den in the tree - tops, gol - den, Sep - tem - ber's here a - gain. Gol - den are the tree - tops,

D7 G C G D7 G

Gol - den in the sky, Gol - den, gol - den, gol - den, As a Har - vest moon sails by.
Gol - den is the sky, Gol - den, gol - den, gol - den, Sep - tem - ber's pass - ing by.

Golden is the garden,
Golden is the grain,
Golden, golden, golden,
It's Harvest time again!
Golden in the tree tops,
Golden in the sky,
Golden, golden, golden,
As a Harvest moon sails by.

Golden is the garden, Golden is the glen,
Golden, golden, golden, September's here again.
Golden are the tree tops, Golden is the sky,
Golden, golden, golden, September's passing by.
