A classic poem by Adeline White. From 'The book of one thousand poems' published in 1972. Music by Dany Rosevear.

The musical score is written on two staves in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of the poem, with lyrics 'The south-west wind is blow—ing, A red fox hur-ries by; A'. The second staff contains the melody for the second line, with lyrics 'lake of sil-ver wa—ter Re-flects a rain-bow sky!'. Below the second staff, the chorus 'La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la!' is written. Chords G, D7, C, and D7 are indicated above the notes.

The south - west wind is blow — ing, A red fox hur - ries by; A lake of sil - ver wa — ter Re - flects a rain - bow sky!

La, la la la la, la, la, — La, la, la, la, la, la!

The south-west wind is blowing,
A red fox hurries by;
A lake of silver water
Reflects a rainbow sky!
La, la, la...

The morning sun is shining
Upon the golden corn;
An early blackbird wakens
And sings to greet the dawn!
La, la, la...
