A great song for making up your own rhymes.

This is an anglicized version of the Scottish nursery rhyme. If you would like to try it in dialects go to: http://www.traditionalmusic.co.uk/folk-song-lyrics/Katie\_Beardie.htm.

You can also find skipping and ball against the wall versions online:

Katie Beardie had a sheeep,
She taught it how to skip and leap,
Wasn't that a clever sheeep,
Dance, Katie Beardie.

Katie Beardie had some micee,
She taught them how to skate on icee,
Weren't they all such clever micee,
Dance, Katie Beardie.

Katie Beardie had a cat,
It pulled a rabbit from a hat,
Wasn't that a clever cat,
Dance, Katie Beardie.

Katie Beardie had a hēn,
It could count from one to ten,
Wasn't that a clever hēn,
Dance, Katie Beardie.

Katie Beardie had a crocodile,
We haven't seen her for a while,
The crocodile he had a smile,
Whoops! Katie Beardie.
