

There's a kangaroo jumping

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

It's time for an energetic movement rhyme.

Suitable as a transition song when children have been sitting for some time.

Encourage children to add more verses.

Adapted from 'Here's a little man' from 'Music for the Nursery school' by Linda Chesterman published in 1935. Words adapted by Dany Rosevear. Move freely with suitable actions.

There's a kan - ga - roo jump - ing, jump - ing up and down, There's a kan - ga - roo jump - ing, jump - ing up and down, There's a kan - ga - roo jump - ing, jump, jump - ing all a - round

There's a kangaroo jumping, jumping up and down,
There's a kangaroo jumping, jumping up and down,
There's a kangaroo jumping, jump, jumping all around.

There's a little frog hopping, hopping up and down,
There's a little frog hopping, hopping up and down,
There's a little frog hopping, hop, hopping all around.

There's a little bird flying, flying up and down,
There's a little bird flying, flying up and down,
There's a little bird flying, fly, flying all around.
