

A plea for one world

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

Sing in unison or as a two part round.

It was possibly written by the Jazz musician Russ Garcia and His wife Gina; they are members of the Baha'i Faith and promote World Peace.

I found it in my collection of books published by the Cooperative Recreation Service / World Around Songs which suggested this was a song of the Young Pioneers translated from the Russian.

Find out more at: <https://mudcat.org/thread.cfm?threadid=10191>

A plea for one world is heard in man - y dif - fr'ent lands. This is a plea from a world that is hun - gry for peace. When can we all live to - geth - er? When will we all work to - geth - er? Striv - ing to make the world bet - ter, Pled - ging our lives to peace.

The musical score is written on three staves in 4/4 time. The first staff has a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The chords above the first staff are Am, E, Am, Dm, E, Am, Dm. The lyrics are: "A plea for one world is heard in man - y dif - fr'ent lands. This is a plea from a". The second staff has a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The chords above the second staff are Am, E7, Am, Am, E7, Am, E7, Am, E7, Am, Dm. The lyrics are: "world that is hun - gry for peace. When can we all live to - geth - er? When will we". The third staff has a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The chords above the third staff are C, Dm, C, Dm, E, Dm, Am, E, Dm, Am, E7, Am. The lyrics are: "all work to - geth - er? Striv - ing to make the world bet - ter, Pled - ging our lives to peace."

A plea for one world,
Is heard in many different lands.
This is a plea of a world
That is hungry for peace.

When can we all live together?
When will we all work together,
Striving to make the world better
Pledging our lives to peace?

