Frosty the snowman was a jolly happy soul,
With a corn-cob pipe and a button nose,
And two eyes made out of coal.
Frosty the snowman is a fairy tale they say,
He was made of snow but the children know
How he came to life one day.

There must have been some magic
In that old silk hat they found,
For when they placed it on his head,
He began to dance around.

Oh, Frosty the snowman was alive as he could be,
And the children say he could laugh and play,
Just the same as you and me.

*Thumpity, thump, thump,
Thumpity, thump, thump,
Look at Frosty go.
Thumpity, thump, thump,
Thumpity, thump, thump,
Over the hills of snow!*

Frosty the snowman knew the sun was hot that day,
So he said, "Let's run and we'll have some fun
Now before I melt away."

Down to the village, with a broomstick in his hand,
Running here and there all round the square saying,
"Catch me if you can!"

He led them down the streets of town right to the traffic cop.
And he only paused a moment
When he heard him holler "Stop!"

For Frosty the snowman had to hurry on his way,
But he waved goodbye saying, "Don't you cry,
I'll be back again some day."
Thumpity, thump, thump...
