

Owl's lullaby

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

For the lonely out there.

A haunting yodel lullaby sung by Clyde "Kindy" Sproat. This is a song that Clyde learned as a boy growing up in the remote valley of Honokane Iki on the island of Hawai'i. Clyde recalls that his mother had an old Victrola phonograph in the 1930's and this song was on one of their records.

The "Owl's Lullaby" became the favorite family song to close out an evening of singing. Sadly I haven't yet learnt to yodel but it still makes a beautiful song!

Find out more at: <https://mudcat.org/thread.cfm?threadid=40875>

C G7 C F C G7
 "Who! Who! Who!?" Who will talk to me? Who will an - swer me? Who knows
 F C F C Am
 why I sing who? Who - oo - oo! Who knows the rea - son why I sing this lul - la - by?
 G G7 C C F C
 Who! Who! Who!" The owls are fly - ing; I hear them all sigh - ing, Through the C G7 C
 trees and the cur - tains as they hur - ry on home. With my feet on a C F C G7 C limb and my eyes sad and lone - ly, I ask, "Who! Who! Who!?"

Chorus: Who! Who! Who!?"

Who will talk to me? Who will answer me?

Who knows why I sing who? Whoo-oo-oo!

Who knows the reason why I sing this lullaby?

Whoo! Whoo! Whoo!?"

The owls are flying; I hear them all sighing,
Through the trees and the curtains as they hurry on home.
With my feet on a limb and my eyes sad and lonely,
I ask, "Whoo! Whoo! Whoo!?" Chorus

As their wings brush the sky, I hear their far cry,
As they "Whoo!" and they "Whoo!", watch their shadows go by,
With my feet on a limb and my heart flying with them,
I sing "Whoo! Whoo! Whoo!?" Chorus