

Tell me little spider / A lesson

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

Practice makes perfect. A message that has stood the test of time. From 'Elfin songs of sunland' by Charles Keeler published in 1905. It can also be used as a hand play imitating the movements of each creature.

Music by Dany Rosevear.

A musical score for 'Tell me little spider' in G major, 2/4 time. The score consists of three staves of music with lyrics underneath. The first staff starts with 'Tell me lit - tle spi - der, Who taught you how to spin?'. The second staff continues with 'Tell me lit - tle min - now, How you learnt to use your fin? Tell me lit - tle swal - low, Who taught you how to'. The third staff concludes with 'fly? And they each said, "It is eas - y If you try and try and try."'

Tell me little spider,
Who taught you how to spin?
Tell me little minnow,
How you learnt to use your fin?

Tell me little swallow,
Who taught you how to fly?
And they each said, "It is easy
If you try and try and try."