

A spade for a gardener 🗣️ 📺

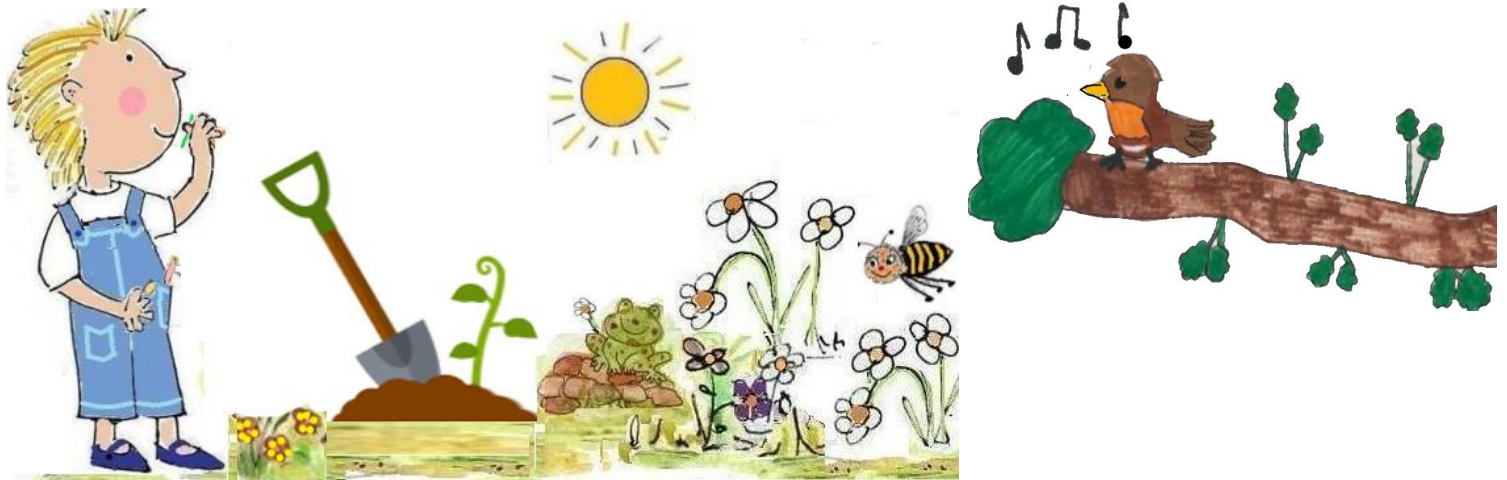

<https://rivzrofsong.uk/>

A Spring song from Germany. What is a gardener without tools?

From February onwards gardeners are outside come sun, wind or rain. Their tools are crucial to prepare the ground for new plantings.

Music arranged by Dany Rosevear.

Musical score for the song 'A spade for a gardener'. The score is written on three staves in 4/4 time. The first staff contains the first line of the song, with chords C, G, F, C, G7, C, and Am. The second staff contains the second line, with chords D, D7, G, C, F, C, F, and C. The third staff contains the third line, with chords F, C, F, C, Am, and a first ending with G and C, followed by a second ending with G and C. The lyrics are: 'A spade for a gar - den - er, a rake and a hoe, And you must have a wat - 'ring can to make the flow - ers grow. You must take your lit - tle rake, you must take your hoe, And weed the beds and seed the beds and watch the flow - ers grow! flow - ers grow!'

A spade for a gardener, a rake and a hoe,
And you must have a wat'ring can to make the flowers grow.
You must take your little rake, you must take your hoe,
And weed the beds and seed the beds
And watch the flowers grow and watch the flowers grow!

A spade for a gardener for digging time's begun,
And all the jolly gardeners are digging in the sun.
You must take your little rake, you must take your hoe,
And weed the beds and seed the beds
And watch the flowers grow and watch the flowers grow!