

It ain't gonna rain no more

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

This song began as old country dance tune from Nebraska. Wendell Hall composed the original version in 1923 but soon, as with many folk songs, everyone would sing the chorus together and then vie to make up the wittiest set of lines. Sing the refrain between each verse. 1. Skip around the circle to the left. 2. Circle to the right. 3. Partner on the left hook elbows with the one opposite and exchange places Those on the right do the same. 4. Partners swing each other around. Continue as above.

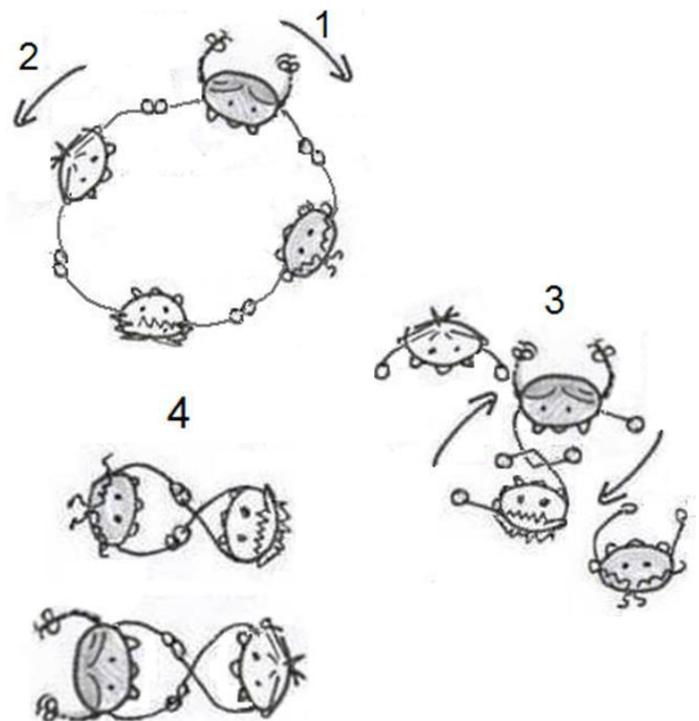

It ain't gon - na rain no more, no more, It ain't gon - na rain no more, It ain't gon - na hail, and it ain't gon - na snow, If it ain't gon - na rain no more.

Bake those biscuits good and brown,
It ain't gonna rain no more,
Swing your partner round and round,
If it ain't gonna rain no more. Chorus

A, B, C, D, E, F, G,
It ain't gonna rain no more,
Sing right on to X, Y, Z,
It ain't gonna rain no more. Chorus

Some people say that fleas are black,
But I know that ain't so,
'Cos Mary had a little lamb,
It's fleece was white as snow!. Chorus

Rabbit ate a turnip top,
It ain't gonna rain no more,
Then off he went with a hipperty hop,
If it ain't gonna rain no more. Chorus

Peanut sat on a railway track,
His heart was all a flutter,
Along came the chugga chuggatrain,
Toot! Toot! Peanut butter! Chorus
