

Little bird, little bird, flaps its wings

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A seasonal hand play with music, words and hand play by Dany Rosevear.

Make up your own verses or encourage the children to do so.

It can also be played as an action game if more lively activity is needed.

Verse 1. Cross hands at wrists and flap them. Move hands high. 2. Show claws, look fierce and growl. Roll arms around each other. 3. Hold out palm and make fingers of the other hand dance like a little lamb jumping. 4. Cross forefingers and make them fly around, place one finger on the palm

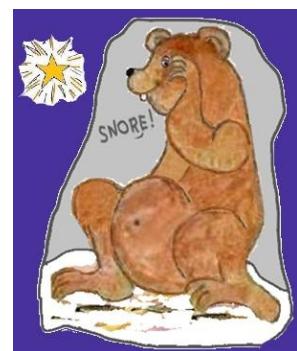

Lit - tle bird, lit - tle bird, flaps its wings, Flaps its wings, flaps its wings, And flies a - way in the morn - ing.

Little bird, little bird, flaps its wings,
Flaps its wings, flaps its wings,
Little bird, little bird, flaps its wings,
And flies away in the morning.

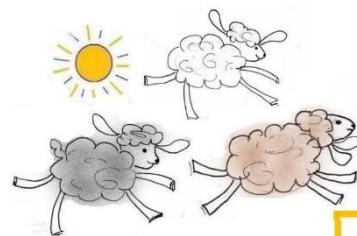

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

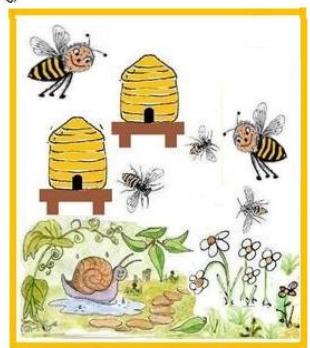

Little bear, little bear, growls at me,
Growls at me, growls at me,
Little bear, little bear, growls at me,
Then tumbles down the snowy hillside.

Little lamb, little lamb, skips for joy,
Skips for joy, skips for joy,
Little lamb, little lamb, skips for joy,
And skips away in the Springtime.

Little bee, little bee, buzzes by,
Buzzes by, buzzes by,
Little bee, little bee, buzzes by,
Then sits on a flower in the sunshine.

<https://riverofsong.uk/>