

She waded in the water

Who dares to dive into chilly early summer seas? Only the brave. This version from Tom Glazer's comic songbook 'Do your ears hang low?' includes a bathing suit from the start, rather than a suggestive "clap." 1. Stamp four times to each bar. 2. Slap ankles. 3. Slap knees. 4. Slap thighs. 5. Stamp and 'swim'.

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats (Bb and Eb). It consists of five staves of music with corresponding lyrics. The lyrics are: 'She wad-ed in the wat-er and she got her feet all wet, She wad-ed in the wat-er and she got her feet all wet, She wad-ed in the wat-er and she got her feet all wet, But she did - n't get her bath - ing suit wet, yet! Glo - ry, Glo - ry Hal - le - lu - jah! Glo - ry, Glo - ry Hal - le - lu - jah! Glo - ry, Glo - ry Hal - le - lu - jah! But she did - n't get her bath - ing suit wet, yet!'. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines, along with chord symbols (Bb, Eb, Gm, Cm, F7) above the staff.

She waded in the water and she got her feet all wet,
She waded in the water and she got her feet all wet,
She waded in the water and she got her feet all wet,
But she didn't get her bathing suit wet, yet!
Glory Glory Hallelujah! Glory Glory Hallelujah!
Glory Glory Hallelujah!
But she didn't get her bathing suit wet, yet!

She waded in the water and she got her ankles wet...
She waded in the water and she got her knees all wet...
She waded in the water and she got her thighs all wet...

She waded in the water and she finally got it wet x 3
She finally got her bathing suit wet!

Glory Glory Hallelujah! x3
She finally got her bathing suit wet!
