

Far in the wood

<https://rivgrofsong.uk/>

I would love to know the origins of the lyrics of this charming song. From 'Sing through the day – 90 songs for younger children' where it was credited to 'anon'. The words there included a 'Tira lira' refrain and had a different tune from the one below. The mysterious music below is by Debbie Carroll who has kindly allowed its use. Find more of her wonderful songs for young children at: <http://debbiecarroll.com/>

Chords: Dm, Am, Dm, Gm, Dm, Am, Dm, Dm, Am, F, Gm, Dm, Am, Dm, Dm, Am, Dm, Gm, Am, F, Gm, Am, Dm.

Far in the wood you'll find a well With wa - ter deep and clear, Who - ev - er drinks by moon - light bright, Will live a thou - sand years, Will live a thou - sand years. And all a - round the lit - tle well Are se - ven love - ly trees; They rock and sway and sing a song And whis - per in the breeze, And whis - per in the breeze,

Far in the wood you'll find a well
With water deep and clear;
Whoever drinks by moonlight bright,
Will live a thousand years,
Will live a thousand years.

And all around the little well
Are seven lovely trees;
They rock and sway and sing a song
And whisper in the breeze,
And whisper in the breeze.

And through the seven little trees,
The evening wind will blow,
And down fall seven little dreams
My baby all for you,
My baby all for you.

