

See the little caterpillar

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

Changing times, the life cycle of the caterpillar. An opportunity for silly noises. Words and music by Dany Rosevear.

1. Wiggle finger on palm. 2. Rub tummy. Open and close hands. 3. Move one forefinger round the other, sigh. 4. Hands to cheek, snore, shout 'Wakey, wakey!' with hand to mouth. 5. Cross hands at wrists and flap.

The musical score is written in G major and 2/4 time. It consists of four staves of music with lyrics underneath. The lyrics are: "See the lit - tle ca - ter - pil - lar eat - ing leaves for lunch. What a greed - y lit - tle thing, 'Gob - ble, gob - ble! Munch! Munch! Munch!'" Now it spins a chry - sa - lis, With a soft and care - less sigh, A lit - tle sleep, a lit - tle snore, "Wa - key, wa - key!" It's a beau - ti - ful but - ter - fly!

See the little caterpillar eating leaves for lunch,
What a greedy little thing,
"Gobble, gobble! Munch! Munch! Munch!"
Now it spins a chrysalis, with a soft and careless sigh,
A little sleep, a little snore,
"Wakey, wakey!"
It's a beautiful butterfly!
