

Since I laid my burden down

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A traditional African American spiritual and folk hymn about finding peace and relief from earthly troubles. A wonderful song for any community gathering.

Capo 2nd fret

Glo - ry, glo - ry, — hal - le - lu - jah! — Since I laid — my bur - den down —

Glo - ry, glo - ry, — hal - le - lu - jah! — Since I laid my, — my bur - den down.

Chorus

Glory, glory, hallølujah!
Since I laid my burden down.
Glory, glory, hallølujah!
Since I laid my, my burden down!

I feel better, so much better,
Since I've laid my burden down.
I feel better, so much better,
Since I laid my, my burden down!

All my troubles are now over,
Since I laid my burden down.
All my troubles are now over,
Since I laid my, my burden down!

I feel like shouting, hallølujah!
Since I laid my burden down.
I feel like shouting, hallølujah!
Since I laid my, my burden down!

I am climbing Jacob's ladder,
Since I laid my burden down.
I am climbing Jacob's ladder,
Since I laid my, my burden down!
