A farmyard 'please' and 'thank you' hand play. Words and melody by Helen Call and published around 1923 in 'Songs of Childhood'.

1. Hold up six fingers. 2. Put hand to eyes, wiggle little finger. 3. Roll fists round each other. 4. Make arm and hand into a tree. 5. Put hand to ear. 6. Put hand to mouth.

Six lit - tle pigs in the straw with their moth - er, Bright eyes, curl - ly tails, tum- bling on each oth - er. Bring them ap - ples from the or - chard trees And hear those pig - gies say, "Please, please, please!"

Six little pigs in the straw with their mother,
Bright eyes, curly tails, tumbling on each other.
Bring them apples from the orchard trees,
And hear those piggies say, "Please, please, please!"

Six little pigs in the straw with their mother,
Bright eyes, curly tails, tumbling on each other.
Bring them apples from the orchard trees,
But instead of "Thank you!" they'll go, "Wee! Wee! Wee!"
