

The bird's nest

<https://rivgrofsong.uk/>

A loving Froebel hand play for Spring.

Music arranged by Dany Rosevear to a German nursery tune, 'Little John'.

- 1. Palms up.
- 2. Open and close thumb and forefinger, cup palms.
- 3. Hold up two fingers put in nest.
- 4. Hands to cheek.
- 5. Thumb up, hand to ear.
- 6. Two fingers poke through curled fist.
- 7. Hand to ear, open and close forefingers and thumbs.
- 8. Hands to heart, open and close forefingers and thumbs.

Here up - on the leaves at rest, A lit - tle bird has built her nest. Two ti - ny eggs with - in she's laid, And man - y days be - side them stayed.
Now she's hap - py, lis - ten well! Two ba - by birds break through the shell.
Don't you hear them? "Peep! Peep! Peep!" We love you moth - er, "Cheep! Cheep! Cheep!"

The musical score is written in G major, 2/4 time. It consists of four staves of music with lyrics underneath. The chords are G, D7, G, D, G, D7, G, D7, G, D, G, D7, G, D7, G.

Here upon the leaves at rest,
A little bird has built her nest.
Two tiny eggs within she's laid,
And many days beside them stayed.
Now she's happy; listen well!
Two baby birds break through the shell.
Don't you hear them? "Peep! Peep! Peep!"
We love you, mother, "Cheep! Cheep! Cheep!"