

Worms, snails and slugs

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A summer hand play by Dany Rosevear.

Keep you eys open for those that creep and crawl on and under the ground.

The words suggest what you need to do.

Worms, snails and slugs and oth - er bugs, In my gar - den creep and crawl; — While black - bird spies with greed - y eye A sup - per from the wall. — Wrig - gle worms! Slith - er slugs! You need to speed a - way; Or hide be - neath a sha - dy leaf, To live an - oth - er day.

Worms, snails and slugs and other bugs,
In my garden creep and crawl;
While blackbird spies with greedy eye
A supper from the wall.
Wriggle worms! Slither slugs!
You need to speed away;
Or hide beneath a shady leaf,
To live another day.

Now worms are slow and snails more so,
And slugs are bugs that slide,
But cat's about, and children shout,
Blackbird decides to fly!
Wriggle worms! Slither slugs!
You still must speed away;
Or hide beneath a shady leaf,
For gardener comes this way.
