

In all kinds of weather

<https://rivrofsong.uk/>

Whatever the weather keep moving, singing or humming. This cumulative song and action play features new music with words adapted by Dany Rosevear, as the original format could not be found. Chorus actions: Pass back of hand across forehead, rub upper arms. Thumbs up, wag finger. Verses: As written.

The musical notation is written on a treble clef staff in 4/4 time. It consists of three lines of music. The first line has a C chord above the first measure and G7 above the second. The second line has G7 above the first measure, G above the second, C above the third, and G above the fourth. The third line has C above the first measure, a first ending bracket over measures 2-3 with a G chord above measure 2, a G7/2 chord above measure 4, and a C chord above measure 5. The lyrics are: 'In all kinds of wea - ther — Whe - ther it's hot or it's cold, It would be nice if we could make The wea - ther to do what it's told! To make the sun we hum, hum, hum, Hum, hum, hum, hum, hum, hum, all day long!'

Chorus: In all kinds of weather Whether it's hot or it's cold,
It would be nice if we could make The weather to do what it's told!

To make the sun, we hum, hum, hum,
Hum, hum, hum, hum, hum, hum!
To make the sun, we hum, hum, hum, all day long!

In all kinds of weather...
To make the rain, we pat our knees,
Pat our knees, pat our knees.
To make the sun, we hum, hum, hum, all day long!

In all kinds of weather...
To make the wind, we wave our arms,
Wave our arms, wave our arms
To make the rain, we pat our knees,
Pat our knees, pat our knees.
To make the sun, we hum, hum, hum, all day long!

In all kinds of weather...
To make the snow, we wiggle our toes,
Wiggle our toes, wiggle our toes,
To make the wind, we wave our arms,
Wave our arms, wave our arms
To make the rain, we pat our knees,
Pat our knees, pat our knees.
To make the sun, we hum, hum, hum, all day long!
