

The poor king

The words of this comic song are by Chris Green. I found this in BBC Television for Schools 'Music Time' published in Spring 1983. It was taken from CHORUS: 'The Puffin Colony Song Book' compiled in 1977 by David Green. The words are ideal for making up your own crazy verses.

The poor king found a gold - fish in his bath, A gold - fish in his bath, a gold - fish in his bath, The poor king found a gold - fish in his bath, That swam be - tween his toes.

The poor king found a goldfish in his bath,
A goldfish in his bath, a goldfish in his bath,
The poor king found a goldfish in his bath,
That swam between his toes.

The poor king found a monkey in his soup,
A monkey in his soup, a monkey in his soup,
The poor king found a monkey in his soup,
That pulled the poor king's beard.

The poor king found a tiger in his bed,
A tiger in his bed, a tiger in his bed,
The poor king found a tiger in his bed,
That ate the poor king up.
