

Here are the beehives

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A simple number rhyme and hand play for summer.

Five in one hive, five in the other; how many bees altogether?

Words traditional, music by Dany Rosevear.

Curl fingers into fists. Throw out hands and look puzzled. Pull fists into chest. Make hands fly about on one side then the other. Pop up fingers on one hand and then the second hand.

The musical score is written on three staves in 4/4 time. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of the song, with lyrics 'Here are the bee-hives, But where are the bees? Hid-den a-way where no-'. The second staff continues the melody for the second line, with lyrics 'bo-dy can see. Here they come, each one a-live;'. The third staff continues the melody for the third line, with lyrics 'One, two, three, four, five! One, two, three, four, five!'. Chords are indicated above the notes: C, F, C, C, Em, C, C, F, C, C, G7, C, F, C.

Here are the beehives,
But where are the bees?
Hidden away where nobody can see.
Here they come,
Each one alive;
One, two, three, four, five!
One, two, three, four, five!
