An old nursery rhyme. Music by Dany Rosevear.

The Man in the Moon as he sails — the sky, Is a ver - y re - mark - a - ble skip - per; But he made a mis - take when he tried — to take A drink of milk from the Dip - per. He dipped right out of the Milk - y Way, And slow - ly and care - ful - ly filled it, The Big Bear growled, and the Lit - tle Bear howled And fright - ened him so that he spilled it!

The Man in the Moon as he sails the sky,
Is a very remarkable skipper;
But he made a mistake when he tried to take
A drink of milk from the Dipper.
He dipped right out of the Milky Way,
And slowly and carefully filled it;
The Big Bear growled, and the Little Bear howled
And frightened him so that he spilled it!

The Man in the Moon wore a sad little face,
For he wanted that milk for his dinner;
And he melted away, like a snowdrift in May,
Each night just a little bit thinner.
The Big Bear called to the Little Bear
"His tummy is grumbling and griping.
Now tell me please, if we fed him some cheese,
Would that keep the poor man from pining?"
