

Love is a lullaby

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

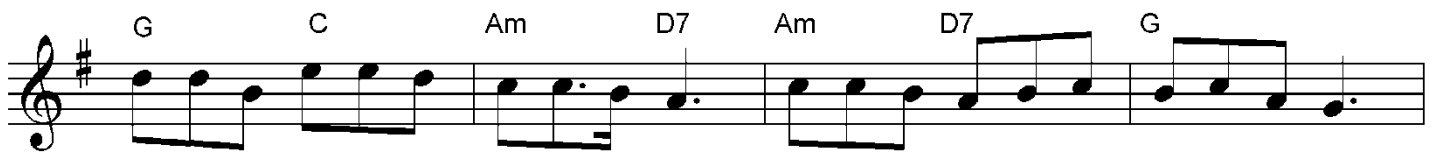

A lullaby to sing while holding your little one close and feeling its tiny heartbeat. Invite children to imagine other ways love might feel to them.

It can also be accompanied by gentle percussion echoing the rhythm of the heart. Words and music by Dany Rosevear, tune adapted from an old English folk song.

Capo: 2nd fret

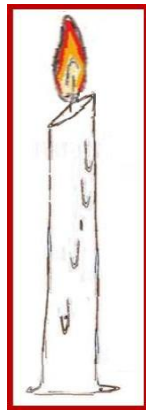

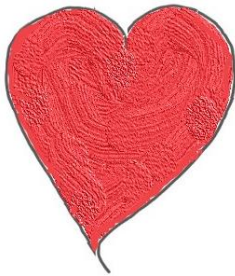

Love is a lul - la - by when I hold you tight, Love is a small can - dle in the dark night,

Love is a song to the stars and the moon, Love is my heart go - ing "Boom, boom, boom, boom!"

Boom, tick - y boom! Boom, tick - y boom!" Love is my heart go - ing "Boom, boom, boom, boom!"

Love is a lullaby when I hold you tight,
Love is a small candle in the dark night,
Love is a song to the stars and the moon,
Love is my heart going, "Boom, boom, boom boom!"

Chorus: Boom ticky boom! Boom, ticky boom!"

Love is my heart going, "Boom, boom, boom boom!"

Love is my heart going, "Boom, boom boom boom!"

Love is your smile, my sweet ray of light,

Love is a rainbow shining so bright,

Love is a flow'r that blossoms and blooms,

Love is my heart going, "Boom, boom, boom boom!" Chorus
