

Oh, Mister Sun

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

We're always looking for the sun, but not too much of it!

*This song is generally regarded as traditional American folk music possibly from Carolina. Its origins appear undocumented, and AI-generated misinformation online has caused some confusion; notably, it is not included in Ruth Crawford Seeger's 1948 book American Folk Songs for Children. I believed it was around in my childhood but like AI I could well be mistaken!*

Oh, Mis - ter Sun, Sun, Mis - ter Gol - den Sun, please shine down on me. Oh, Mis - ter
Sun, Sun, Mis - ter Gol - den Sun, hid - ing be - hind a tree.
These lit - tle chil - dren are... ask - ing you to please come out so we can play with you.
Oh, Mis - ter Sun, Sun, Mis - ter Gol - den Sun, won't you please shine down on me?

Oh, Mister Sun, Sun, Mister Golden Sun, please shine down on me.

Oh, Mister Sun, Sun, Mister Golden Sun, hiding behind a tree.

These little children are asking you, to please come out so we can play with you.

Oh, Mister Sun, Sun, Mister Golden Sun, won't you please shine down on me?

Oh, Mistress Moon, Moon, bright and silvery moon, please shine down on me.

Oh, Mistress Moon, Moon, bright and silvery moon, hiding behind a tree.

These little children are asking you, to please come out so we can sleep for you.

Oh, Mistress Moon, Moon, bright and silvery moon, won't you please shine down on me?

Oh, little stars, stars, little twinkling stars, please shine down on me.

Oh, little stars, stars, little twinkling stars, hiding behind a tree.

These little children are asking you, to please come out so they can wish on you.

Oh, little stars, stars, little twinkling stars, won't you please shine down on,

Please shine down on, please shine down on me?
