

There are big waves

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A poem by the wonderful children's poet Eleanor Farjeon.

Music by Dany Rosevear.

Make hands move like different kinds of waves and voice respond to the sound of the different waves.

The musical score is written on three staves in G major and 3/4 time. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of the poem, with chords G and D7. The second staff contains the melody for the second line, with chords G, C, G, D7, and G. The third staff contains the melody for the third line, with chords C, G, D7, G, D7, and G. The lyrics are: 'There are big waves and lit - tle waves, Green waves and blue, Waves you can jump o - ver, Waves you dive through. Waves that rise up Like a big wa - ter wall, Waves that swell soft - ly And don't break at all. Waves that can whis - per, Waves that can roar, And ti - ny waves that run at you Run - ning on the shore.'

There are big waves and little waves,
Green waves and blue,
Waves you can jump over,
Waves you dive through.

Waves that rise up
Like a great water wall,
Waves that swell softly
And don't break at all.

Waves that can whisper,
Waves that can roar,
And tiny waves that run at you
Running on the shore.
