

Pretty trees around the world

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

Explore the wonders of the natural world with Ella Jenkin delightful song. Identify individual trees with a call and response echo. Introduce familiar trees initially and then less familiar trees from other parts of the world. Go on a tree walk and make rubbings. More ideas here: Exploring and Protecting Nature with Ella Jenkins: Pretty Trees around the World | Smithsonian Folkways Recordings

The musical score is written on three staves in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The first staff contains the melody for 'There are many pretty trees all around the world, Many pretty trees all a-'. The second staff continues with 'round the world, Many pretty trees all a-round the world, Here's a pretty tree now.' The third staff features a call-and-response section: 'It's an oak tree, It's an oak tree, It's an oak. It's an oak tree, It's an oak tree, It's an oak.' Chords A, F#m, A, E, and E7 are indicated above the notes.

There are man - y pret - ty trees all a - round the world, Man - y pret - ty trees all a - round the world, Man - y pret - ty trees all a - round the world, Here's a pret - ty tree now.

It's an oak tree, It's an oak tree, It's an oak.
It's an oak tree, It's an oak tree, It's an oak.

There are many pretty trees all around the world,
Many pretty trees all around the world,
Many pretty trees all around the world,
Here's a pretty tree now.

It's an oak tree, It's an oak tree,
It's an oak tree, It's an oak tree,
It's an oak, It's an oak.

There are many pretty trees all around the world,
Many pretty trees all around the world,
Many pretty trees all around the world,
Here's a pretty tree now.

It's a gum tree...

It's a pine tree ...
It's a palm tree ...
It's banyan tree ...

