

Deep blue sea

<https://rivzrofsong.uk/>

This lullaby is based on John Bell's Peace version of the traditional song of the same name which included the line 'It was Willie what got drowned' sung by Odetta and Pete Seeger among others; we knew it well in the late 1960s. Last verse by Dany Rosevear.

Deep blue sea, baby, deep blue sea,
Deep blue sea, baby, deep blue sea,
Deep blue sea, baby, deep blue sea,
Now there's peace, in all the land,
And o'er the deep blue sea.

Sleep my child, you are safe with me,
Sleep my child, you are safe with me,
Sleep my child, you are safe with me,
Now there's peace, in all the land,
And o'er the deep blue sea.

Feel the love, it is all around,
Feel the love, it is all around,
Feel the love, it is all around,
Now there's peace, in all the land,
And o'er the deep blue sea.

Moon is high and the sun's at rest,
Stars are twinkling, the night is dressed,
Dream, sweet dreams in your downy nest,
Now there's peace, in all the land,
And o'er the deep blue sea
