

Here's to thee good apple tree 📺

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

It's apple picking time and time for a wassail chant. An apple wassail is an ancient English midwinter folk tradition of blessing apple orchards to awaken the trees and secure a good harvest for the coming year. There are many great wassail traditions and songs from around the UK. Find several wassails to sing in my River of song site. This chant can also be played as a hand play.

Here's to thee good apple tree,
Stand fast at root, Bear well at top,
Every little twig
Bear an apple big.
Every little bough
Bear apples now,
Hats full! Caps full!
Thre score sacks full!
Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!
