

Late one dark and stormy night

A Halloween hand play.

Adapted from a traditional rhyme by Dany Rosevear who also wrote the music.

Line 1. Tap watch, wave arms across body. 2. Put up three fingers, make witches hat, stir a pot. 3. Two fingers up, ring thumb and forefingers round eyes. 4. Sing in a whisper, hands move stealthily forward. 5. Raise hands and look scary.

Late one dark and stormy night,
Three little witches stir a pot, what a sight!
Two little ghosts say, "How do you do?"
Go tiptoe, tiptoe, tiptoe,
BOOO !!!
