The Halloween train is coming

https://riverofsong.uk/

A follow my leader game. Climb aboard for a spooky Halloween ride.
Words and music by Dany Rosevear. Inspired by a Czech traditional song: 'The family train is coming'. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Amj7SzpU4UU
Make trains of six or seven children. The leader takes the train around the room weaving in and out of other trains. Each time the song is sung the leader retires to the back of the train leaving a new driver to start a new journey.

Wake up, wake up, wake up,
The Halloween train is coming,
Wake up, wake up, wake up,
The train is on its way!
There's Jack-o'- Lantern, spooky bats,
A friendly witch and her green-eyed cat,
Skeletons rattle, one two, three,
Floaty ghosts eat toast for tea!
You're welcome to climb aboard,
The Halloween train today!
