Wendy the friendly witch

https://riverofsong.uk/

For those who get the wobbles on Halloween night.
Wendy might not be beautiful but much more important she has a good heart.
I looked up the describing words for witches and none of them were kind ones.
I have a dear witch hidden away in my toy cupboard (She doesn't like that all!) but my grandson is terrified of her! This is a song to try and convince him that not all witches are horrible or mean - however he has enjoyed the 'Winnie the witch' books and many other story book witches.
Words and music by Dany Rosevear with a little help from the grandchildren.

I'm Wendy, the friendly,
Kindly, caring witch,
I'm not scary or hairy,
I'll help you in a fix.
I'll sweep with my broomstick your cobwebs tonight,
Then shoo away the spiders if they give you a fright.

Here's Henry, my black cat,
Always such a dear;
You can stroke its fur softly
If you feel any fear.
Those watchful green eyes will keep you in sight,
Its purr is calm and gentle on Halloween night.

Are you spooked by the pumpkins,
Skeletons and ghosts?
Is it clowns, bats or pirates
That frighten you the most?
Wave up at the pale moon if they come out to play,
I'll weave wonder and magic to chase them away.

I'm Wendy, the friendly,
Kindly, caring witch,
I'm not scary or hairy,
I'll help you in a fix.
