Magic all around

Make the most of the magic in our world, in the music we hear, the songs we sing and the beauty of the world we share. When we pause to listen, look, and wonder, even the most simple moments can fill us with joy.
The lovely inspiring first verse was written by Lorraine E. Watters.
The final two verses and the musical setting are by Dany Rosevear.

There is magic in music,
There is magic in sound;
There is magic in beauty,
Wherever it is found.

There is magic in dancing,
As the circle turns round;
There is magic in singing,
Wherever we are bound.

There is magic in nature,
When we hear the birds sing;
There is magic in the blue sky,
Flying free on the wind.
